SHEEHAN TAKES CONTROL PREPARATIONS FOR ACTIVE WORK AT STATE HEADQUARTERS.

Bunting and Tarif Texts Adors the Walls and a Welcome in Ready for all Visitors-Calendar for the Fall Campaign.

Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan arrived from Buffalo last night, and from to-day will be the inspiriting force at Democratic State Head-quarters, 11 West Twenty-fourth street. Beyond an occasional visit to his home and family he will remain at his post until the night of election day. Nearly 200 applications to join the staff of workers have been received, and one of the first duties of Mr. Shechan will be the selection of energetic and faithful servants. It is sad to relate, but in several campaigns within the memory of the present gen eration certain of the employees were discovered in communication with the enemy ove the way in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Extraordinary precautions will be taken this year to prevent these leaks.

Efforts toward making the headquarters more presentable to visitors were under way yesterday. An extra bale of bunting adorned the collings and chandeliers, and additional pictures were hung. Around the walls were hung long strips, on which were comments on the tariff, blazoned in the brightest hues. One of the strips is headed, "Opinions of Prominent Republicans on the Tariff." SEVEN WISE MEN OF THE OLD " ATE. For a Month they Have Been Wondering

It was quite a month ago that the John J. O'Brien Association appointed a committee of seven statesmen who were to investigate and report as to the relative merits of the candidates for President now before the people, to examine the issues presented in the platforms of the several political parties, and to take such other and further steps as should be deemed by them necessary to determine which party and which candidate shall receive the votes of the members of the association on election day. The statesmen charged with this duty by the appointment of Mr. Bernard Rourke, the leader of the O'Brienites, are Alderman Charles "Silver Dollar" Smith. Fred J. Scelig. William T. O'Brien, ex-Aldermen Christian Goetz, Henry Loewy, Morris Birnbaum, and "Big" Sullivan. They have not yet reported the result of their investigation nor made any mmendation, and in the new Third As-recommendation, and in the new Third Assembly district anxious inquiries are made as to what the committee has been doing.

Nothing has been heard of visits by its members to any of the Presidential candidates or to the managers at national headquarters from whom information such as they are commissioned to secure might be obtained. What sources of information have they sought and what arguments have been advanced by advocates of the contending candidates for the support of the John J. O'Brien Association? These questions are agitating the minds of the Third district politicians. Heretofore the vote of the John J. O'Brien Association has been cast solidly for the Republican Presidential ticket, but there is said to be some doubt that it will go that way this year. Messrs. Seelig and O'Brien of the committee are in favor of Cleveland. No good word has been said for Weaver by any of the committee, and it is considered that Ridwell is out of the question in the Third district.

The stand taken by Mr. Rourke and his men in the Third district.

The stand taken by Mr. Rourke and his men will have a considerable influence upon the result of the election in the district.

Mr. Stevenson in Missouri.

SEDALIA. Mo., Aug. 80.-Adial E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, addressed a mass meeting here to-day. Tweive excursion trains poured crowds into the city from an early hour this morning, and a parado preceded the speaking. Mr. stevenson in his speech confined himself mainly to the tariff question, his line of argument being that of his Bloomington speech. Senator Vest and several local speakers also addressed the necting. This evening there was a torchlight parade and a meeting at the Opera House, at which Mr. Vest was the principal orator.

FIVE HUNDRED LETTERS STOLEN.

A Mariem Firm's Mail Being Robbed Sys-tematically, and the Thief Still Uncaught. H. C. F. Koch & Co., the dry goods merchants in 125th street, near Lenox avenue. have been suffering from a series of mail robberies. Early in April the firm began receiving complaining letters from out-of-town customers, inquiring why goods which they had ordered, and sent the or by mail, were not sent to them These complaints have continued to come in until now the firm has a record of over 500 letters which they have not received. They have complained to the postal authorities, but up to the present time have got little satisfaction To a Sun reporter yesterday Mr. A. Riesenberg, the junior member of the firm, gave the following account of the matter: "It was about the 10th of April that we re ceived our first complaint. It all came from a lady out West, who said that three weeks before she had sent us an order for a dress, and had enclosed in the letter a check for the amount stated in our catalogue. She wanted the dress without further delay. No such order could be found on our books, so we wrote and told her we had never received her letter. Since then we have received similar letters daily. Toward the latter part of April we sent a letter to Postmaster Van Cott telling him about the matter, and asked him to try and catch the thief. He replied that he would investigate. but the complaints kept coming in more frequently than before, so I called on Mr. Van but the complaints kept coming in more frequently than before, so I called on Mr. Van Cott in person. He told me that he had placed the matter in the hands of Inspector James, who in turn informed me that the matter was being looked into, but said he was hampered by an unusual rush of business, and claimed that his force was inadequate to handle it all. "A few days after this interview two inspectors came to our store for several days. They watched our employees, especially the boy who got the mail and the cashier who opened it, but discovered nothing. The evil continued unabated, and on June I was wrote to the Post Office again, but received in reply that same excuse—that they were very lusy but would attend to our case as soon as they could. On July is we wrote to Post-master-General Wanamaker, but while this and the two succeeding letters elicited -replies, saying that our case was being attended to, the number of complaints from our customers about missing letters steadily increased, until we realized that if the thing continued our out-of-town trade would be ruined. In reply to our letter of Aug. 22 the acting Postmaster-General wrote, saying that there was such a press of business in the office of the Chief Post Office inspector that it had been impossible to give our correspondence the attention if deserved, and that the matter had been referred to the inspector in charge at New York, with instructions to give it his carliest attention. That is the present standing of the case. Since we sent our last letter to Washington 109 additional cases have been added to the list."

At the Post Office yesterday afternoon Chief Clerk Baldwin in the Inspector's department said that his department had been working on the case, but had been malled,

WILL TRY TO HAVE TILTON INDICIND.

A Result of the Differences Between the Police and the Soldiers at Buffilo.

BUFFALO, Aug. 30.-Superintendent of Police Morgenstern, after consultation with Mayor Bishop to-day, decided to go before the Grand Jury next week and ask that an Indictment be found against Lieut. Tilton of the Twelfth Regiment, New York, for interference with a police officer in the discharge of his duty. This decision is the result of the hostility be tween the police and the National Guard while the soldiers were here.

Superintendent Morgenstern says he wants an investigation of the charge that the police were in sympathy with the strikers, and hampered the soldiers in the discharge of their duty. He says that a careful investiga-tion would develop facts that would be decidedly unpleasant for the National Guard. Lieut. Tilton, whom he proposes to have indicted, directed the arrest of Patrolman Connors, who tried to prevent the soldiers from interfering with a pedestrian who wished to cross the Nickel Plate tracks on Perry street. Under cover of muskets the patrolman was forced to give up his club and revolver, and was placed in the guard house. In doing this Superintendent Morgenstern believes Lieut. Tilton exceeded his authority, and he intends to find out if the Grand Jury will agree with him. An indictment may be found for highway robbery.

If Commissioner Churchyard returns from New York in time, the Police Board will meet to investigate the charges made against the force in general of neglect of duty and sympathy with the strikers. All persons having complaints to make have been requested to be present. "That bully Colonel of the Twenty-second primits to make have been requested to be present.

"That bully Colonel of the Twenty-second Regiment should have registered his complaints here," said Superintendert Morgenstern. "If the force was in arror I want to know it, but I don't believe it was. The National Guard was ordered here to suppress riots, acting in cooperation with the local police, and not to dominaer over the police and arrest mon in the performance of their duty."

The inquest into the death of Michael Broderick, who was shot last Thursday by soldiers of the Twenty-second New York Regiment, was begun to-day by Coroner Eanson.

Mrs. Lizzle Lee testified that Broderick ran through her house, coming in at the front door. The soldiers caught him in the ailey way. When Broderick was getting over the fence the soldiers shot at him from her kitchen door. Two soldiers were in the house at that time Broderick got over the fence and tried to run. A Captain whe was in the ailey shot at this by with a revolver. The Captain was close to the fence when he fired.

John Daiton saw a squad of soldiers chasing a lot of boys. Broderick ran into Mrs. Lee's house and fired. He did not see any trouble before the shooting. The soldiers charged the crowd without any provocation. They seemed excited and did not appear to know what they were doing.

John Moore saw the soldiers chase Broderick. He did not see the shooting. He was with Broderick all the morning, and was suro he did not throw stones.

The inquest was adjourned until Thursday morning. The jury will go to the scene of the shooting to-morrow.

G'DONNELL SURRENDERS.

He Gives Buil to Answer the Charges of Conspiracy and Riot. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.-Hugh O'Donnell, the Homestead leader, gave himself up this morning, and, waiving a hearing, was put under ball for court, on charges made by the Car negie Company, in $2,000 for aggravated riot and $1,000 for conspiracy. O'Donnell said he was getting tired of this sort of thing, but he proposed to stay it out. The bond which he is under now in the Homestead cases foots up $13,000. Michael Maloney, a well-known saloon keeper here, is his bondsman in all cases. Two other Homestead men. Lynch and Roberts, also gave themselves up, and were put under ball to-day on charges of riot. John Edwards of Homestend, one of the men charged by Secretary Lovejoy with aggravated riot, and who was arrested at the World's Museum, where, with his family, he is filling an engagement, was released on $2,000 ball tolay. It is said that all the members of the Advisory Committee, and those prominently connected therewith, expect to be arrested. It was said at the Alderman's office that about forty informations were in the hands of the constables for the arrest of Homestend men on similar charges to those against O'Donnell. One of the agents employed to watch the Homestead strikers says that forty-four informations have been made. He asserts that the papers in 108 other cases have been prepared. These, he claims, will be sworn to in a short These, he claims, will be sworn to in a short time and placed in the hands of the constables. Secretary Lovejoy of the Carnegie Company, when seen, made the ligures larger. He said that thus far there have been considerably more than 100 warrants issued. He would not give the exact number. He could not say how many persons would be arrested, as it was "just like lishing." "Sometimes the constables spend the day at Homestead," he earld," and fail to find anybody. At other times said, "and fail to find anybody. At other times they are successful." He added: "I can tell you however, that a good many informations will be made. "We cannot say exactive, but I do not believe more than half a dozen."

John McCurry, the ex-Allegheny policeman, who was shot during the Homestead riot on the steamer Little lill, was discharged from the Allegheny General Hospital on Sunday. He has not yet entirely recovered from the effects of his wound, having to use crytches. He hovered between life and death for several weeks, and at one time his condition was so serious that Coroner McDowell took his deposition. The surgeon was unable to extract the bullet without a very dangerous operation, which was not risked, so that Mr. McCurry still carries the bullet around with him. The latest returns from Homestead mill, as announced by Secretary Lovery to-day, recorded 2.100 officient workers in the mill.

Max Goodrich of Belledontaine, O., a non-union worker in the Homostead mills, had his back broken on Saturday last, he claims, by the careless handling of the rolls, which were let fall on his back while cleaning them. John Snodgrass, another employee in the mills, was injured by an explosion. Both men are in the hospital, and the physicians do not think they will get well.

HARRY SCHLIPF TO BE MARRIED.

Min Bride Elect was the Intimate Friend of the Girl He is Accused of Killing.

NEW BRUNSWICE, Aug. 30 .- To-day it became known here that in a few days Harry Schlipf. the young brakeman out on $5,000 ball for trial for the murder of Mary Anderson, was to marry Clara Hollander of Perth Amboy, who was once the dead girl's most intimate friend. The announcement of the engagement was made by Schlipf while he was in confinement here, but people took but little stock in it. The young man said a good many things which were not at all akin to truth, and it was hard to tell just when he was in earnest.

All the time when the evidence against schilp' seemed to be almost conclusive proof of his guilt. Clara expressed her firm belief in his innocence. Mrs. Hollander also sent schilpf many expressions of sympathy and regard. The proof of the girl's love for Schilpf is evidenced by her willingness to marry him while the cloud of crime still hangs over him schilpf will be tried at the Sentember court. Since his release he has been working at his old position on the Lehigh Valley liairoad. The exact time of the marriage has not been fixed. The fiolianders live on a comfortable income, while Schilpf is making good wages.

Defective Oliver of the office of Prosecutor Adrain of Middlesex county is still a firm believer in Schilpf's guilt, and is still working to secure evidence in the case. The young man said a good many things

SLIM HOPE OF GRAND OPERA.

THE METROPOLITAN DIRECTORS HES TIATING TO REBUTED.

No Decisive Action Taken at Yesterday's Merting, but President Roosevelt Says the Outlook for Grand Opera in New York this Season is Unpromising.

The Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Opera House Company held a meeting resterday morning in the directors' room and discussed the advisability of repairing the opera house in time for the coming season of grand opera. There were present at the meeting President James A. Roosevelt, Treasurer Luther Kountze, Secretary H. M. Mc-Laren, W. H. Vanderbilt, Robert Goelet, Henry G. Marquand, George N. Curtis, G. Q. Haven, George Peabody Wetmore, William C. Whitney, and Adrian Iselin.

The meeting lasted two hours. At its close Mr. Roosovelt said that the directors had taken no definite action, but had decided to leave the whole question to the stockholders of the Opera House Company. The stockholders will meet on Sept. 0 in Mr. Roosevelt's office at 33 Later in the day Mr. Roosevett said: "I am satisfied that there will be no grand opera-during the coming season in the Metropolitan during the coming season in the Metropolitan Opera House, and possibly there will be none at all in New York. Mr. Schoeffel's architect, Mr. Elpatrick, says that if there be no delay in getting the iron necessary for rebuilding, and if work be carried on day and night, the opera house can be opened by the 1st of January. But yesterday I had it on better authority that the work of rebuilding cannot be done in six months.

ary. But yesterday I had it on better authority that the work of rebuilding cannot be done in six months.

"Our architect. Mr. Cady, estimates that it would east $150,000, at least, merely to restore the building itself. That estimate does not include the scenery and stage effects. Another estimate places the flgures at $225,000 to $300,000. The Board of Directors will meet again on Sent 8 in my office, and in the mean time we will get our estimates, put our affairs in shape, and then leave the decision to the stockholders. We did not discuss the scheme of making a hotel out of the opera house at today's meeting."

"Was the sentiment of the meeting in favor of, or against rebuilding?" was asked.

"There was no sentiment one way or the other." replied Mr. Hossavelt.

The other directors refused to express themselves in regard to the meeting.

John B. Schoeffel of Abbey. Schoeffel & Grau is still quite confident that the operahouse will be rebuild in time for his firm's productions. He was present at the directors meeting for twenty minutes, and late vesterday afternoon he said that the directors seemed to be disposed to rebuild, and he believes that the operahouse will be ready by the 1st of January. "If the operahouse company does not rebuild," said Mr. Schoeffel, in time for us to open the season we will not be able to present grand opera in New York at all, for there is no place in the city saitable. We will simply disband our company, a move which will entail no loss upon us. None of the theatres now in process of construction could be utilized in producing grand opera, and no new house could be built in a year."

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY

Terms of Its New Contract With the Panama Rattroad-It Will be for One Year. Memoranda for a contract between the Panama Railroad and the Pacific Mail Steamship companies were signed vesterday after noon by the Executive Committee of the rail road company and Lawyer Edward S. Lauterbach, representing the steamship company. Mr. Lauterbach said after the meeting: "We have agreed upon the terms under which the contract will be renewed for a year, from Feb. 1, 1803, and the contract will be drawn and executed as soon as the assent of the foreign controlling interest in the railroad company can be obtained by cable. The contract is to run for a year only, because the liquidator or receiver of the Panama Canal Company, which controls the railroad, could not make a contract that might outlive his term of office.

"Under the new agreement the railroad company rokes important concessions to the facility and the steamship company, and the steamship company and the payment of the sum of 255,000 a month to the railroad company. In addition to this payment it has been agreed that the railroad company shall have an interest in the Central American and Mexican business to the extent of one-third of the excess of gross earnings from that husiness during the contract year over the average gross earnings from the same source during the last five years of the present agreement." executed as soon as the assent of the foreign present agreement.

The Intercolonial Railroad of Canada OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 30.-The Canadian Pacific Railroad is negotiating with the Dominion Government for possession of the Intercolonial Bailroad. At present the latter is run at a loss of over half a million of dollars yearly. That is to say, the operating expenses exceed the earnings by that amount. apart altogether from the interest upon the cost of construction. That this loss is due mainly to mismanagement is admitted even by the chief engineer, Mr. Schriber, who, in his testimony before the Civil Service Commission, declared that the loss was due to political influences controlling the management, that there was a great deal of "leak; age" in the fluonces of the road; that incapable and dishonest as well as unnecessary employees have been retained in the service of the railway through political influence, and that he was powerless to remody those evils. The Inter colonial and its branches have cost the taxpayers of the Dominion about $50.00.000.000. The annual defeit of $50.00.000 represents a capital of $1.200.000 more. The annual cost of operating the intercelonial Baliroad system to the taxpayers of Canada is, therefore, including interest upon cost of construction, $2.480,000 a year. estimony before the Civil Service Commission

Bisturbing Passenger Rates. St. Louis, Aug. 30. - The rassenger rate de moralization, on account of the Grand Army encampment at Washington, D. C., next nonth, has already set in west of here. The full line, or Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis, which occurries an almost independent position geographically, has contracted for a large amount of the Lusiness by the Memphis route, allowing long transit limits and stopover privileges, so that scalpers will get hold over privileges, so that scalpers will get hold of a large number of the tickets, especially the return coupons, and unsettle business at regular tariff rates for a long time to come. The chairman of the Western Passenger Association to-day wired the Burlington general officers at headquarters here for information concerning an alleged rate quoted by the Burlington from St. Joseph to Washington, based on a prevailing $5 rate to st. Louis. The Burlington officials declare that they have quoted nothing less than the authorized G. A. It rate to Washington and return.

THE NEW YORK SUGAR PRAUDS. Discharged Custom House Employees Told

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30,-Cheese, macaroni. firecrackers, and sugar is a mixture when taken together that is likely to create trouble even in the best regulated Custom House. The our articles named caused the investigation now in progress in the New York Custom House, which led to the discovery of the sugar frauds recently unearthed there. Treasury Meials refuse to be interviewed on the subject, and Acting Secretary Spaulding says he as no information to impart at this time. It is known, however, that the sugar frauds were revealed by former employees of the Custom House, who were discharged for com-plicity in swindling the Government out of certain customs duties, which the present depleted Treasury so much needs. Certain employees of the Custom House were accused of collusion with importers of cheese, mararoni, and firecrackers. An investigation was ordered, and the accused were found guilty and discharged. After the removals were inade and there was no prospect of the dismissed employees securing reinstatement, they "informed" on some of their former associates, who were inspectors and welchers of sugar. When the charges were presented to the Secretary of the Treasury an investigation was ordered and a committee was appointed, consisting of the Collector of the Port, the Surveyor, Appraiser, Naval Officer, and Special Agent Whitehead.

In addition to investigating the sugar frauds, the committee was directed to make a thorough examination of the customs service at New York. There is conclusive evidence lesides that of the informers, and as soon as the matter is brought officially to the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury several changes in the weighing department of the New York Custom House may be announced. pleted Treasury so much needs. Special Agent Whitehead of the Custom House said that the evidence implicating these firms was put in the hands of the United States District Attorney on Aug. 18, and that he did not know whether actions had been begun against them. He is still investigating the other cases and will submit evidence to the District Attorney as fast as it is obtained. Surveyor Lyons was not at his office yesterday, and no additional information could be got from his assistants. At the offices of the firms named any knowledge of the frauds was denied. denied.
At the District Attorney's office Assistant United States District Attorney Maxwell Evarts said that he was only authorized to say that District Attorney Mitchell had been investigating the matter for several days.

NEW ELECTRICAL DISCOVERY.

A Storage Battery Whose Current Will Last from Three to Five Years.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 30,-Dr. Winfield S. Bryan, a local electrician, has made a discovery in the shape of a practically self-sustain ing storage battery. He has had long experionce in electrical matters. He has been working on his invention for two years, and he now promises to work wonders in the mechan-ical world.

now promises to work wonders in the mechanical world.

Dr. Bryan's battery is wholly different from anything of the kind heretofore manu netured. Not yet being protected by patents he will not tell what his secret is, except in a general way. A combination of chemicals, altogether new, is made, and their action is so slow, yet strong, that the current generated will last with constant use, from estimates now made, from three to flevyears.

An ordinary battery is good only for twelve hours. The inventor throws a little light on his secret by saying that a reversal of the current causes a reoxidization of the chemicals, thus strengthening the battery. The battery rent causes a reoxidization of the chemicals, thus strengthening the battery. The battery was exhibited has week in Cincinnati to rep-resentatives of the Edison Phonograph Com-pany, the fan and motor company, and a rep-resentative of the Big Four.

which will prevent any cutting of prices. The agreement provides that a uniform price per parrel of beer shall be maintained, and to enforce observance of this stipulation each firm force observance of this stipulation each firm or corporation has placed in a designated bank a large sum of money to be forfeited to the association should the terms of the agroment be violated. It is expected that the price will be restored to and kept at $3 per barrel. The combination will except from the terms of the agreement some one brewery that may be used for guerrilla purposes. If a new brewery starts up with a view off cutting prices, the guerrilla brewery will compete with it, and the loss occasioned thereby will be divided among the parties to the agreement.

He spoke of "the growing unremunerativeness of corn growing in Europe in the face of the overwheiming American competition, contantly increasing through the continual opening &p of new regions to cultivation and the lowering of railway freight rates." MISS YOST AND MISS BEINIE, And the Trouble They Had Because of the Dog Catchers.

Mary Yost, a pretty blende, 18 years old, o 194 Humboldt street, Williamsburgh, went to a pienie at Ridgewood Park on Sunday with Emil Krey, her afflanced. At the picpic Miss Yost met Annie Beintz, a young and attractive venrs. Miss Beints was in the comrany of several Williamsburgh dog catchers. During the evening Miss Vost danced with one of the dog catchers, which excited the jealousy of Miss Beintz, who, it is said, refused to again speak to Miss Yost. When Miss Yost danced with another dog catcher Miss Beintz object ed, and from words the young women came to blows. What followed was thus told by Miss Yost in the Lee Avenue Police Court yester-

Stort in the Lee Avenue Police Court yesterday, in her application for a warrant against Miss Heintz for assault:

"It was just after I danced with Jack, who is a dog catcher, that Miss Beintz came up to me and wanted to know by what right I danced with her friends. I told her they were my friends as well as hers. She warned me not to have anything more to say to them, and when I told her I would do as I pleased she struck me in the face. I defended myself as best I could, but was no match for her. She struck me in the face. I defended myself as best I could, but was no match for her. She struck me right and left and pulled my hair. I pulled her hair, but it didn't seem to hurt her any, because she kept right on pounding me. My sweetheart interfered, when Annie jumped at him and best him almost as bad as she uid me. Some of my friends finally restrained her from attiking me again. The jealous old hussy had no reason to assault me the way she did, because many a time she danced with my triends, and I never said a word. But I'll get square with her if it takes ten years. I was mortified almost be death at the way she went at me, and right in front of a crowd, too."

The warrant will be served on Miss Beintz this morning.

A New Stenmbont for the Mackennie River MONTREAL, Aug. 30,-The Hudson Bay Company is building a steamboat to ply upon the great Slave and Athabasea rivers, which form the upper part of the Mackenzie River. When this steamboat is in service the company will have three steamers plying on the great river. The Mackenzie is navigable from its mouth in the Arctic Sea 1,400 miles to Fort Smith in 60° north latitude. At this place a range of hills crosses the river, and there is a series of rapids which interrupts navigation for twelve miles. Freight is transferred by land around this obstruction. Above Fort Smith the river is again navigable for 400 miles, until navigation is again obstructed by a rapid three miles in length at Fort Mchurray. The Hudson llay Company now has a steamer plying unon the lower and middle stretches of navigable waters, and the new steamer is intended for the upper part of the river. Navigation is easy for five or six months in the year. The rivers commence to fill with fee in October, and are not open for the steamers again until April. The Hudson Bay Company says that its business in the Mackenzie basin is increasing, and it looks forward to profitable trading operations there next season. north latitude.
